carers. The Parish Council offices are arranged in order to admit members of society with various physical problems e.g. wheelchair access, ramps etc. All posts with the Parish Council are advertised universally and all applications received are assessed on their merits without regard to any particular physical, mental problems etc. and there is equality between the sexes when appointments are being made by the Parish Council.

The flexibility of working hours and practices are treated fairly by the Parish Council. In particular the age discrimination is taken into account presently by the Council with the staff currently employed. The Parish Council believes that all the practices do cover the requirements of the human rights legislation.

Health and safety policy

This is set out in a booklet, which all staff have seen and is kept up to date.

Recruitment policies (including current vacancies)

A Council decision is required in order to deal with current vacancies. The Staffing Sub-Committee will also be involved in decisions regarding the job specification, person specification, salary, hours to be worked, objectives of the post etc. These will be conveyed to applicants. The Sub-Committee is usually formed to interview applicants and make recommendations to the Staffing Sub which in turn reports to the Finance Committee which in turn reports to the Council for approval for action. The recruitment advertisements make very clear that all applicants are treated equally in every respect.
